ARADICAL
VISION

A person is rappelling down a dark rock face against a dramatic sky with orange and blue clouds. The person is silhouetted against the light. A large blue diagonal shape is on the right side of the image.

“The only thing worse than being blind is having sight
but no vision.”

- Helen Keller

BLIND > SIGHT > VISION

ARADICAL VISION

Identifying our blindness is like walking into a dark closet.

Once we accept that we are blind, we can take the steps necessary to see.

With sight we can see where we're going and that allows us to move forward.
